

Where are you going?
home.
grandma's house.
to find shelter.

There is a long, dark winding path.
go down path?
go back?

A wolf comes to greet you.
return greeting pleasantly?
use pepper spray and run away?

The wolf asks where you are headed.
tell him you are headed to grandma's house?
don't tell him where you are going, use pepper spray,
and run away?

Not today, wolf!
start over?

The wolf asks what you are carrying.
tell him you have cake and wine?
don't tell him what you are carrying, don't tell him where you are going, use pepper spray, and run away?

The wolf asks where your grandma lives.
tell him the location of grandma's house?
don't tell him grandma's location, don't tell him what you are carrying, don't tell him where you are going, use pepper spray, and run away?

The wolf leaves.
Go pick some flowers before visiting grandma?
run home before the wolf comes back?

You arrive at grandma's house with flowers.
go right inside?
notice the door is already ajar, the latch is unlocked and run away?

"The better to hear you with, my child!"
seems legit.
nope. run.

"The better to see you with, my dear."
seems legit.
nope. run.

Grandma looks a little strange...
what big ears you have, grandma!
what big eyes you have, grandma!
what a big mouth you have, grandma!
...it's the wolf! - grandma's gone. save yourself and run.

"The better to eat you with!"
Wow... so shocking!
I didn't see this coming at all!
So surprised!
